II.3.5.4 Hot bottling

Definition:

Bottling of wine heated prior to the immediate corking of the bottle.

Objectives:

a) Biological stabilisation of the wine;

b) Elimination of oxygen;

c) Physico-chemical stabilisation.

Prescription:

The wine should not be heated above 45°C.

Recommendation of the OIV:

Admitted