II.2.1.12.4 Concentration of must by cold

Definition:

Process consisting in concentrating must by partial freezing and elimination of the ice thus formed.

Objective:

See II.2.1.12 a and c 'Partial dehydratation of musts'

Prescriptions:

A light sulfiting of the must before freezing is recommended.

Recommendation of the OIV:

Admitted