RESOLUTION OIV-ECO 715-2023

WITHDRAWAL OF OBSOLETE, OUT OF DATE AND REDUNDANT OIV RESOLUTIONS

The General Assembly,

RECALLING Resolution AG 3/2004, by which the International Organisation of Vine and Wine accepted the transfer of the entire scientific and technical heritage of the International Vine and Wine Office;

NOTING that resolutions of general, scientific, technical, economic and legal scope adopted by the General Assembly of the International Organisation of Vine and Wine, and prior to this by the General Assembly of the International Vine and Wine Office, constitute the corpus of decisions and recommendations of the Organisation;

NOTING that between 1928 and 2021 the OIV adopted a total of 1379 resolutions, 19 of which have been officially withdrawn;

CONSIDERING Axis VI A of the 2020-2024 Strategic Plan, "Foster international cooperation", in particular point 3, which specifies to "pursue interaction with other international organisations and promote awareness of OIV resolutions";

NOTING that to facilitate the application of OIV decisions by Member States it is necessary to evaluate the relevance of resolutions according to their scope, implementation and topicality;

CONSIDERING the Annex 8 of the Rules of Procedure of the International Organisation of Vine and Wine, which describes the procedure for evaluation of resolutions, and which specifies that the OIV Secretariat compiles the results of the evaluation and presents them to the Executive Committee.

CONSIDERING the work of the Codification Steering Committee, put in place by decision of the CST meeting in April 2021 and tasked with inventorying OIV resolutions to analyse their relevance and their applicability;

CONSIDERING that the Codification Steering Committee used the following withdrawal criteria as a basis:

a. OBSOLETE

A resolution may be considered obsolete when

i. the object of the resolution is based on scientific hypotheses that have been refuted

Certified in conformity Jerez, 9th June 2023

by scientific studies / more recent universally accepted concepts

or

ii. the object of the resolution is no longer consistent with the objectives and guidelines of the OIV.

b. OUT OF DATE

A resolution may be considered out of date when

i. it refers to a particular event (with or without a specific timetable),

ii. the topic of the resolution no longer exists or is no longer valid.

c. REDUNDANT

A resolution may be considered redundant when

i. a subsequent resolution repeats, reiterates or adds new elements to its content.

CONSIDERING the proposal presented by the Codification Steering Committee for review by the Commission III "Law and Consumer Information" (DROCON) Group, namely to withdraw certain resolutions identified as obsolete, out of date or redundant and that cannot be currently applied;

AT THE PROPOSAL OF the "Law and Consumer Information" (DROCON) Expert Group;

DECIDES to withdraw the 376 resolutions presented in Annex 1, with the objective of improving the coherence of the corpus of OIV resolutions and facilitating their application by Member States.

Certified in conformity Jerez, 9th June 2023

74.	OENO 1/94	International harmonisation (of oenological practices)	The objectives and tasks were defined in the 2001 Agreement establishing the OIV.	Withdrawal
75.	VITI 3/94	Harmonisation of residue levels in exchanges of fruits	The Codex Alimentarius now deals with harmonising maximum residue limits in the fruit trade.	Withdrawal
76.	OENO-ECO 1/94	Liqueur wines (the need for a definition)	Naturally sweet wine is now defined by the International Code of Oenological Practices under file I.4.6 (ECO 287/2010). Liqueur wine is also defined by the International Code of Oenological Practices under file I.4.3 (ECO 2/2007). At the moment there are no rules on labelling so there is a gap to be filled.	Withdrawal
77.	OENO 4/93	Lead level	The limit given in Resolution OENO 4/93 is no longer in effect and has been replaced by the limit specified in OIV-OENO 638-2019.	Withdrawal
78.	AG 1/93	Thanks United States	This resolution expresses thanks to the United States (San Francisco) for having hosted the 73rd OIV General Assembly on 29 August to 3 September 1993.	Withdrawal
79.	VITI 3/93	Vine physiology	This relates to the 5th International Symposium on Grapevine Physiology, which was organised in Jerusalem (Israel) on 2–7 June 1996.	Withdrawal
80.	VITI 4/93	Table grapes (recommendations for sector specifications)	This text led to the subsequent creation of the SCRAISIN ("Table Grapes, Raisins and Unfermented Vine Products" Sub-Commission). SCRAISIN's mandate, as described in the Rules of Procedure, covers the recommendations described in Resolution VITI 4/93.	Withdrawal
81.	VITI 5/93	Techniques of vine propagation	The certification of plant material is now addressed within Commission I "Oenology" in relation to specific topics.	Withdrawal
82.	VITI 6/93	Reduction of chemical treatments in the vineyard	The issues have been addressed within resolutions and work is under way in line with the Strategic Plan.	Withdrawal
83.	OENO 1/92	Processes to limit the formation of foam	Resolution OENO 1/93 reproduces Resolution OENO 1/92 word for word, the difference being that all of the processes were accepted in 1993 instead of in 1992 (except for the dimethylpolysiloxane procedure – file II.2.3.7).	Withdrawal
84.	ECO 1/92	Lot marking (recommendation)	Batch identification is addressed in Article 2.7 of the International Standard for the Labelling of Wines (ECO 3/93).	Withdrawal
85.	ECO 3/92	Liqueur wines	Commission III "Economy and Law" has defined liqueur wines in the International Code of Oenological Practices with Resolution ECO 2/2007 (file I.4.3). The STATCO Expert Group also has statistical data on producer countries of liqueur wines.	Withdrawal
86.	GEN 1/92	Thanks Spain	This relates to the organisation of the 72nd General Assembly, held in Madrid (Spain) on 23 May 1992.	Withdrawal
87.	COMEX 1/92	OIV Regulation	Resolution COMEX 1/92 provides for the introduction of Article 2 on provisions relating to Member States with late financial contributions into the Rules of Procedure. These provisions have now been replaced by those of the 2001 Agreement establishing the OIV.	Withdrawal
88.	OENO 7/91	Lead (limit)	The limit given in Resolution OENO 7/91 is no longer in force and has been replaced by the limit specified in OIV-OENO 638-2019.	Withdrawal
89.	VITI 1/91	Clonal selection of the vine	The standard programme has been addressed in Resolution OIV-OENO 564A-2017.	Withdrawal
90.	GEN 2/91	Greetings to the Soviet delegation	This Soviet delegation event is in the past and this corresponds to a specific event.	Withdrawal
91.	OENO 2/90	D-malic acid: determination by enzymatic method (Compendium of International Methods of Analysis of Wines and Musts)	Resolution OENO 6/98 reiterates each point of the previous resolution (and also adds a completely new point on precision as well as new annexes).	Withdrawal
92.	VITI 6/90	Clonal selection (standard programme)	The standard programme has been addressed in Resolution VITI 1/91.	Withdrawal
93.	Joint Resolution 1/90	Thanks	This relates to the organisation of the 70th OIV General Assembly, held in Yalta (Crimea, ex-USSR) on 3–13 September 1990.	Withdrawal
94.	OENO 3/89	Lactic bacteria in oenology (Codex)	Resolution OENO 15/2003 has modified and replaced Resolution OENO 3/89.	Withdrawal
95.	VITI 2/89	Production of table grapes: strengthening research on seedless varieties	This relates to the organisation of a symposium on breeders of seedless varieties: this is now outdated.	Withdrawal
96.	Joint Resolution 2/89	Thanks	This relates to the organisation of the 68th General Assembly of the International Vine and Wine Office, held in Luxembourg on 4–9 September 1989.	Withdrawal
97.	OENO 1/88	Colloids in wine and modern filtration techniques: encouraging research	Oenological clarification techniques have been addressed in the International Code of Oenological Practices: - treatment with silicon dioxide in file II.2.1.10 for musts and file II.3.2.4 for wines (OENO 1/91), - fining in file II.3.2.1 (OENO 7/99).	Withdrawal
98.	OENO 3/88	Lead-tin sealing capsules	Resolution OENO/ECO 1/90 sets out a recommendation to ban lead capsules from 31 December 1993 onwards (which was subsequently confirmed).	Withdrawal
99.	OENO 4/88	Ethyl carbamate	Ethyl carbamate is included in the Compendium of International Methods of Analysis of Wines and Musts (OIV-MA-AS315-04) by way of Resolution OENO 8/98.	Withdrawal
100.	ECO 3/88	Use of the term "brandy"	The term "brandy" is now defined by Resolution ECO 4/2008 as part of the International Code of Oenological Practices (file I.7.6).	Withdrawal
101.	VITI 2/87	Creation of the informal "Vine Physiology" group and intensification of research on vine physiology	This informal group no longer exists.	Withdrawal

112.	AG 5/84-OEN	Entry of beta-glucanase enzyme preparations into the list of permitted treatment products for wine	Treatment with beta-glucanases is permitted by Resolution AG 3/85-OEN, as indicated in the International Code of Oenological Practices (file II.3.5.7).	Withdrawal
113.	AG 6/84-OEN	Update to the monograph on enzyme preparations that may be used in grape technology	Resolution OENO 6/95 covers the modifications made by Resolution AG 6/84-OEN, reiterating the provisions introduced by the previous resolution.	Withdrawal
114.	AG 4/83-OEN	Request for coordination of work and methods relating to the initial winemaking phases	In 2012, the OIV adopted "Guidelines for the Characterisation of Wine Yeasts of the Saccharomyces Genus isolated from Vitivinicultural Environments" (OIV-OENO 370-2012). The International Code of Oenological Practices sets out practices and treatments relating to yeasts, as does the International Oenological Codex.	Withdrawal
115.	AG 1/82-VIT	Recommendation for the continued updating of the list of descriptive characteristics and evaluation of the cultivation characteristics of vine varieties	The OIV has adopted the second edition of the OIV descriptor list for grape varieties and Vitis species.	Withdrawal
116.	AG 6/82-ECO	Proposal for the implementation of a methodology for calculating pressing and winemaking costs and a training programme on these methods	This resolution relates to the organisation of the work and is outdated.	Withdrawal
117.	AG 1/81-VIT	Common methodology for a vine training system	Resolution AG 1/81-VIT created a "Vine Training System" working group. This group no longer exists on the CST organisation chart.	Withdrawal
118.	AG 5/81-OEN	Continuity of research work relating to sensory analysis techniques	The OIV adopted a document on the sensory analysis of wine in 2016, drafted by the SCMA.	Withdrawal
119.	AG 6/80-ECO	Codex project on the designation and presentation of vitivinicultural products	In 1983, the OIV adopted an International Standard for the Labelling of Wines, inspired by the Codex Alimentarius standard (CODEX STAN 1-1985, see the Foreword).	Withdrawal
120.	AG 9/80-STR	Director General of the OIV: Status	The resolution set out specific provisions relating to the Status of the Director General that are no longer specified in the Rules of Procedure (Title IV of the Rules of Procedure).	Withdrawal
121.	AG 4/79-VIT	Research relating to viticultural ecology and vine cultivation	This relates to the organisation of a second "Grapevine Physiology" symposium, held in Burgas (Bulgaria) on 19–24 September 1984.	Withdrawal
122.	AG 7/79-OEN	Standardisation in the field of metallic fermenting vats	The TC23/SC8 still exists within the ISO and addresses these issues.	Withdrawal
123.	AG 8/79-ECO	Protection of geographical indications	International agreements have since been signed.	Withdrawal
124.	AG 9/79-ECO	Defence of geographical indications	This relates to the organisation of the symposium on appellations of origin, held in Alessandria (Italy) on 26–30 May 1980.	Withdrawal
125.	AG 10/79-ECO	Distinction between obligatory and optional statements on labelling	Resolution AG 5/85-ECO introduces a list of obligatory statements (Article 2 et seq.) into the International Standard for Wine Labelling. The optional statements introduced (Article 3 et seq.) are set out in Resolution AG 1/88-ECO.	Withdrawal
126.	AG 12/79-OEN	Continuity of research work on components characteristic of aroma	The request for continuity of the work on aroma components in wines was part of a work programme. The work is now present in numerous International Code of Oenological Practices files on the aromatic properties of enzymes, maceration, etc.	Withdrawal
127.	AG 14/79-STR	Thanks	This relates to the organisation of the 16th World Congress of Vine and Wine and 59th OIV General Assembly, held in Stuttgart (Germany) on 21–27 May 1979.	Withdrawal
128.	AG 5/78-OEN	Proposal for uniform units of measurement	The OIV Compendium of International Methods of Analysis of Wines and Musts is aligned with these units of measurement and offers a certain level of harmony.	Withdrawal
129.	C 2/77-VIT	Pursuit of research with regard to biological control	Resolution VITI 1/99 has been adopted and work is under way.	Withdrawal
130.	C 3/77-VIT	Wish to control soil-disinfecting products	The OIV has adopted a "Guide for the Implementation of Principles of Sustainable Vitiviniculture" (OIV-VITI 641-2020), which includes specific principles aimed at protecting the environment and minimising pollutant products.	Withdrawal
131.	C 4//77-OEN	Pursuit of research to avoid or reduce the use of sorbic acid	Sorbic acid or potassium sorbate has now been addressed by Resolution OENO 5/88 (file II.2.2.1 for musts; file II.3.4.5 for wines) and by Resolution OENO 45/2000 (file COEI-1-SORACI).	Withdrawal
132.	C 5/77-OEN	Presence of asbestos in foodstuffs	The topic of "the presence of asbestos in foodstuffs" was covered by Commission II during the 58th General Assembly in Athens on 4–9 September 1958. A report on the work is available.	Withdrawal
133.	C 11/77-ECO	Use of an appellation of origin in wine-producing countries: survey, definition and control procedures	By way of Resolution OIV-ECO 656-2021, the OIV has defined the concepts of appellation of origin and geographical indication in line with the definitions of the WIPO and WTO.	Withdrawal
134.	AG 1/76-VIT	The use of chemical weed control products on the organism	The OIV has adopted a "Guide for the Implementation of Principles of Sustainable Vitiviniculture" (OIV-VITI 641-2020) with various principles aimed at combating the use of chemical products for the purpose of protecting the environment.	Withdrawal
135.	AG 2/76-VIT	Intensification of research on resistance to nematodes through priority objectives	Research on resistance to nematodes has continued in subsequent years, giving rise to a paper on the "Position of rootstocks resistant to nematodes as direct pests" presented at the 58th OIV General Assembly in 1978.	Withdrawal
136.	AG 3/76-VIT	Pursuit of experimental work on vine training with mechanical harvests	Research on vine training with mechanical harvests has continued, giving rise to a report presented by the French Ministry. A training session was also organised in Toulouse in 1984 on the "Mechanisation of the harvest and wine quality".	Withdrawal
137.	AG 4/76-OEN	Pursuit of studies on practical methods of measuring the technological reserve of colouring and tannic matter from the harvest	Some tannins have been characterised in the International Oenological Codex by way of Resolution OENO 12/2002 (file COEI-1-TANINS), and these specifications are in the process of being completed.
