RESOLUTION VITI 2/95

VITICULTURE, COMPUTER, SCIENCE AND MODELLING

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY,

AFTER HAVING HEARD the reports presented at Commission I "Viticulture" on computer science and modeling,

DECLARES:

- That the studies undertaken in the matter of modeling have progressed considerably in certain sectors,
- That basic knowledge is still not complete,

RECOMMENDS

- That Member States favour research in this domain, with the objectives of helping decision making, limiting inputs, developing an integrated approach, and improving understanding of the systems.
