The OIV will appoint an Expert Commissioner to monitor the application of OIV guidelines and rules. The Expert Commissioner should be independent of the competition and its organisers and sponsors, suitably experienced or qualified, and have a knowledge of the relevant OIV guidelines and rules. The organiser must bear the costs associated with the presence of the Expert Commissioner including transport, accommodation and registration. The OIV may at its discretion select an Expert Commissioner from among the jury members only if the jury list is submitted to the OIV at least two months before the competition and there is a suitable candidate among the jury members. If the list is not submitted or no suitable candidate is identified, the OIV will nominate an Expert Commissioner.

In the case of a first request for patronage, the Observer will be appointed by the OIV under the same conditions as above.

5. Patronage fees

Application fee 300€ per competition + 2.50€ per sample.

All fees due and owing in respect of the past OIV patronage must be paid in full before a new patronage request can be considered by the OIV.

In case of hardship, or a large number of samples, the OIV can discuss a suitable arrangement for sample fees.

6. Declaration

I confirm that the information supplied in this application is accurate and that I am authorised to submit it on behalf of the organising entity.

The organiser undertakes to comply with the applicable OIV Guidelines for International Competitions of Wine, Spirituous Beverages of Vitivinicultural Origin and Mistelles, the Guidelines for Granting OIV Patronage and the Charter for the Use of the OIV Logo in Relation to the Grant of Patronage.

Submission of this application does not constitute the granting of OIV patronage. The organiser undertakes not to use the OIV name or logo before patronage has been granted and to sign the agreement required when patronage is granted.
